DILIPKUMAR MAGARAM KHATRI

Versus

STATE OF GUJARAT

Appearance:

MR HR PRAJAPATI for Petitioner

MR SJ DAVE, AGP for Respondent No. 1, 2, 3

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 04/07/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 29-3--2000 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City and he has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. I have heard learned advocate for the petitioner and also perused the material on record. According to learned advocate for the petitioner, the detenu has submitted a representation on 5-5-2000 and it appears that same has been decided by the authority on 8-5-2000. It also appears that the detenu vide request dated 10-5-2000 demanded certain documents with specific name of the witnesses, but same has not been provided to the petitioner and, therefore, it affects the right of making an effective representation by the petitioner. No affidavit has been filed to that effect explaining satisfactorily regarding non-supply of that document. It has been held in a judgment delivered by this Court in the case of Ashokbhai Jivraj @ Jivabhai Solanki Vs. Police Commissioner, Surat and Ors. reported in 2000(1) G.L.H. 393 as under:

> "Before parting with the matter, we may observe that recently, we have come across few cases wherein no counter-affidavits are filed by the respondents. It is settled law that whenever an order of detentiion is challenged by a detenu or by his "next friend", it is the duty of the authorities to justify the action by filing counter-affidavit preferably by the detaining authority himself, unless there are circumstances which may justify filing of affidavit by an officer or authority other than the detaining authority".

Since no affidavit has been filed either by the detaining authority or by the State authority and also since no explanation has been putforth by the said authority for not supplying the documents specifically demanded by the petitioner, the order of detention is illegal and the same cannot be sustained. Learned advocate for the petitioner does not press any other points.

4. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 29-3-2000 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed. The detenu-Dilipkumar Magaram Khatri is set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute with no order as to costs.
